Passage 4

Be aware of those who use the truth to cheat. When someone tells you something that is true,but leaves out important information that should be included, he can create a false impression. For example, someone might say, “I just won a hundred dollars on the lottery. It was great. I took that dollar ticket back to the store and changed it for one hundred dollars!”

This guy’s a winner, right? maybe,or maybe not. We then discover that he bought two hundred tickets, and only one was a winner. He’s really a big loser!

He didn’t say anything that was false, but he deliberately left out some important information. That’s called a half-truth. Half-truths are not technically lies, but they are just as not honest.

Untrustworthy candidates in political campaigns often use this strategy. Let’s say that during Governor Smith’s last term, her state lost one million jobs and gained three million jobs. Then she seeks another term. One of her opponents runs an advertisement saying, “During Governor Smith’s term, the state lost one million jobs!” That’s true. However, an honest statement would have been, “During Governor Smith’s term, the state had a net gain of two million jobs.”

Advertisers will sometimes use half-truths. It’s against the law to make false claims so they try to mislead you with the truth. An advertisement might boast, “Nine out of ten doctors recommend Yucky Pills to cure nose pimples.” It fails to mention that they only asked ten doctors and nine of them work for the Yucky Corporation.

This kind of deception happens too often. It’s a sad fact of life: Lies are lies, and sometimes the truth can lie as well.

- ()76. In which of the following situations is a person telling a half-truth?
 - A. When somebody is telling a white lie.
 - B. When somebody is making up information.
 - C. When somebody is saying something that is wrong.
 - D. When somebody is intentionally leaving out important information.

Passage 4

FEED THE BRAIN , BUT LESS SUGAR

While no single factor has been identified as the cause of Alzheimer’s it is thought that lifestyle choices , Such as diet exercise and sleep habits can all have a significant impact on the risk . In fact , research by the Albert Einstein College of Medicine has , so far , suggested that lifestyle changes related to healthy ageing looks “more promising than drug studies”.

For the last decade or so , researchers have been exploring the link between our modern diets and the increasing prevalence of Alzheimer’s, specifically the connection between sugar and the disease. A study published in the New England Journal of Medicine demonstrated that even a mild elevation of blood sugar is associated with an elevated risk of dementia.

Previous research had shown a higher risk for diabetics in developing Alzheimer’s more recent research has shed further light on this, finding an intricate link between insulin resistance and the brain. Our bodies produce insulin that is necessary for the survival of brain cells , but this process goes awry when a toxic protein, called ADDL, removes receptors form these cells and renders them insulin resistant . As the ADDLs accumulate, our memory can begin to deteriorate.

So ,what should we be feeding our bodies ti give our brain the best change? A diet low in sugar and carbohydrates and high in healthy fats is essential . Opt for “real” food above processed options and try to keep added sugar levels to a minimum (ideally between 15 and 25 grams a day) . Add plenty of good fats like avocados, raw nuts and coconut and other nut oils to the diet and try a high-quality probiotic to optimize the flora in the gut.

- A. Diet

B. Exercise

C. Mood

D. Sleep habits.
- ()77. What does the sentence “lifestyle change related to healthy ageing look more promising than drug

Passage 3

Are you worried by the rising crime rate? If you are, then you probably know that your house, possessions and person are increasingly in danger of suffering from the tremendous rise in the cases of burglary and attack（攻击）. Figures indicate an ever-increasing crime rate, but it is only too easy to imagine “It will never happen to me”. Unfortunately, statistics show that it really can happen to you and, if you live in a large city, you run twice the risk of being a victim.

Fortunately, there is something definite which you can do. Protect Alarms can help to protect your house with a burglar alarm system which is effective, simple to operate and easily affordable.

You must remember that possessing a burglar alarm is no indication that your house is packed with valuable possessions. It quite simply indicates to unwelcome visitors that yours is one house they will not break into easily, so they carry on to an unprotected house where their job is made a lot easier.

Send now for our free leaflet telling you how we can Protect Alarm your house quickly, easily and cheaply. Complete and tear off the slip below and post it to us. Postage is free. Alternatively, telephone us on 3276721 where we have a round-the-clock answering service. It costs nothing to find out about Protect Alarm.

Passage 4

College is a new and different experience for me. I'm away from home, so I have many things to adjust to, such as being on my own and meeting many different types of people. There are a lot of things that I like about college that I would like to describe for you.

First of all, living at college gives me a sense of responsibility and of being of my own. My parents aren’t around to say, “No, you're not going out tonight.” or “Did you finish your homework?” Everything I do has to be my decision, and that gives me the responsibility of my own life. During the second week I was at college, I had to go out and look for a bank where I could open an account. And when I got to the bank, I had to decide whether to have a checking or savings account and whether or not to get a credit card. Decisions! Decisions!

Friendly people is another thing that I like about college. On the first day I came to Marymount University here in Virginia from New York, I was a bit confused about where I was going. My mother and I drove in. We didn’t know the building we were supposed to go to, and the guard was especially nice. With a smile, he told us what building we were looking for and where we could park our car. My room was on the first floor of New Gerard, and I knew I had to go through some glass doors, but my mother and I didn’t know which ones. Some students saw me and asked, “Are you a mew student?” When they found out I was looking for New Gerard, one said, “Oh, just follow us; that’s where we’re going.” Even now I feel comfortable in the dorm(学生宿舍) because there are friendly people around to talk with.

I do like things about college, but that doesn’t mean I don’t think about things at home. Although I like college, I can still get homesick. New York is a very good place, too! And sometimes I miss it.

- ()76. The text is perhaps written by _____.
A. a new student B. a new teacher C. a foreign reporter D. a foreign visitor
- ()77. What does “gives me a sense of responsibility” in the first sentence of Paragraph 2 mean?
It means it makes me feel _____.
A. responsible for my parents B. responsible for my teacher
C. responsible for the school D. responsible for myself
- ()78. One thing that he liked was _____.
A. the comfortable dorm B. finding his way around
C. his studies as a first year student D. the friendly people

C. It's a dorm's name. D. It's a school's name.

A. People in Marymount University are friendly.
B. The writer likes the new experience in the university.
C. The writer drove to Marymount University with his mother.

Passage 1

Many post-80s couples are complaining that going to the movies, shopping or attending parties have become impossible since their kids were born. That's the way most parents are living their lives, no weekends of their own, no time to visit friends, not even a chance of promotion in their jobs.

Asking help from their parents might be a way out, but problems are that some aging parents are not strong enough to take care of the kids, and that the kids may also become too spoiled by their grandparents.

Then, here comes a solution: families with kids can form a small group, and parents of each family can take turns to look after all the kids in this group on weekends. Thus, other parents can have some quiet time and feel free to do something they've been planning for a long time. At the same time, the kids can make new friends and won't be hanging around their parents all day long. This is baby-pooling.

Passage 2

It is a terrible illustration of man’s weakness to nature, and the tsunami(海啸)that struck the Japanese coast in March, 2011 has illustrated the difficulty of fighting against natural disasters, even for a prosperous nation.

Totally preventing tsunami-damage is impossible. But there is much that can be done to minimize damage and loss of life. Measures that can be taken include designing solid buildings ,and developing early-warning systems, public education programs and evacuation(疏散)strategies. Moreover, the approach of a tsunami is possibly picked up by the sensors of complicated international warning systems. Countries can use radio and television broadcasts as well as loudspeaker networks to warn the public.

But an early warning system depends on how far the tsunami strikes, if it's close by, the warning system is not going to be very effective. When people are faced with an unstoppable force like a tsunami the massive waves created by events like underwater earthquakes, the best course of action for them is to get inland and to the higher ground as quickly as possible.

- ()66. The first paragraph tells us that_____.

Passage 3

Global warming is causing more than 300,000 deaths and about $125 billion in economic losses each year, according to a report by the Global Humanitarian Forum, an organization led by Annan, the former United Nations secretary general.

The report, to be released Friday, analyzed data and existing studies of health, disaster, population and economic trends. It found that human-influenced climate change was raising the global death rates from illnesses including malnutrition(营养不良)and heat-related health problems.

But even before its release, the report drew criticism from some experts on climate and risk, who questioned its methods and conclusions.

Along with the deaths, the report said that the lives of 325 million people, primarily in poor countries, were being seriously affected by climate change. It projected that the number would double by 2030.

Roger Pielke Jr. a political scientist at the University of Colorado, Boulder, who studies disaster trends, said the Forum's report was "a methodological embarrassment" because there was no way to distinguish deaths or economic losses related to human-driven global warming amid the much larger losses resulting from the growth in populations and economic development in vulnerable(易受伤害的)regions. Dr. Pielke said that "climate change is an important problem requiring our utmost attention." But the report, he said, "will harm the cause for action on both climate change and disasters because it is so deeply flawed(有瑕疵的).”

However, Soren Andreasen, a social scientist at Dalberg Global Development Partners who supervised the writing of the report, defended it, saying that it was clear that the numbers were rough estimates. He said the report was aimed at world leaders, who will meet in Copenhagen in December to negotiate a new international climate treaty.

In a press release describing the report, Mr. Annan stressed the need for the negotiations to focus on increasing the flow of money from rich to poor regions to help reduce their vulnerability to climate hazards while still curbing the emissions of the heat-trapping gases. More than 90% of the human and economic losses from climate change are occurring in poor countries, according to the report.

- ()71. What is the finding of the Global Humanitarian Forum?
- A. Global temperatures affect the rate of economic development.

Passage 4

Reaching new peaks of popularity in North America is Iceberg Water, which is harvested from icebergs off the coast of Newfoundland, Canada.

Arthur von Wiesenberger, who carries the title Water Master, is one of the few water critics in North America. As a boy, he spent time in the larger cities of Italy, France and Switzerland, where bottled water is consumed daily. Even then, he kept a water journal, noting the brands he liked best. "My dog could tell the difference between bottled and tap water," He says.

But is plain tap water all that bad? Not at all. In fact, New York's municipal water for more than a century was called the champagne of tap water and until recently considered among the best in the world in terms of both taste and purity. Similarly, a magazine in England found that tap water from the Thames River tasted better than several leading brands of bottled water that were 400 times more expensive.

Nevertheless, soft-drink companies view bottled water as the next battle-ground for market share-this despite the fact that over 25 percent of bottled water comes from tap water: PepsiCo's Aquafina and Coca-Cola's Dasani are both purified tap water rather than spring water.

As diners thirst for leading brands, bottlers and restaurateurs salivate(垂涎) over the profits. A restaurant's typical mark-up on wine is 100 to 150 percent, whereas on bottled water it's often 300 to 500 percent. But since water is much cheaper than wine, and many of the fancier brands aren't available in stores, most diners don't notice or care.

As a result, some restaurants are turning up the pressure to sell bottled water. According to an article in The Street Journal, some of the more shameless tactics include placing attractive bottles on the table for a visual sell, listing brands on the menu without prices, and pouring bottled water without even asking the diners if they want it.

Regardless of how it's sold, the popularity of bottled water taps into our desire for better health. Our wish to appear cultivated, and even a longing for lost purity.

- ()76. What do we know about Iceberg Water from the passage?

A. It is a kind of iced water.

B. It is just plain tap water.

C. It is a kind of bottled water.

D. It is a kind of mineral water.
- ()77. By saying “My dog could tell the difference between bottled and tap water (Line 3 Para2),” Von Wiesenberger wants to convey the message that_____.

A. plain tap water is certainly unfit for drinking

B. bottled water is clearly superior to tap water

C. bottled water often appeals more to dogs taste

D. dogs can usually detect a fine difference in taste
- ()78. The fancier brands (Line 3 Para 5) refers to_____.

B. famous wines not sold in ordinary stores

C. PepsiCo's Aquafina and Coca-Cola's Dasani

D. expensive bottled water with impressive names
- ()79. Why are some restaurants turning up the pressure to sell bottled water?

A. Bottled water brings in huge profits.

B. Competition from the wine industry is intense.

C. Most diners find bottled water affordable.

D. Bottled water satisfied diners' desire to fashionable.

Passage 3

Life really should be one long journey of joy for children who are born with a world of wealth at their tiny feet. But experts on psychological research now believe that silver spoons can leave a bitter taste. If suicide statistics are a sign of happiness, then the rich are a miserable lot. Figures show that it is the rich who most often do away with themselves.

Dr. Robert Coles, an internationally famous doctor, is the world’s top expert on the influence of money on children. He has written a well-received book on the subject, The Privileged Ones, and his research shows that too much money in the family can cause as many problems as too little. Obviously there are certain advantages to being rich,” says the 53-year-old doctor, such as better health, education and future work expectation. But most important is the quality of family life. Money can’t buy love. ”

It can buy a lot of other things, though, and that’s where the trouble starts. Rich kids have so much to choose from that they often become confused. Their parents’ over favoring can make them spoiled. They tend to travel more than other children, from home to home and country to country, which often makes them feel restless.

“But privileged children do have a better sense of their positions in the world,” adds Mr. Coles, “and they are more self-assured.”

Today’s rich parents perhaps have realized that their riches can be more of a burden than a favor to their children. So their priority is to ensure that their families are as rich in love as they are in money.

Passage 4

Charlene, a 16-year-old student at a high school, found herself faced with a maths test to which she knew none of the answers. Rather than fail, she took the test out with her and filled in the answers with the help of her friends. During the break, she got back into the classroom without being seen, crumpled（揉皱）the test with her shoe, and left it lying on the floor. The teacher thought it had been dropped when the tests were collected; she corrected it, and Charlene received a B.

Cheating is, of course, nothing new. But today, educators are finding that cheating on the part of students has become more frequent than in the past. Whether it is copying a friend’s homework, using a prepared sheet on an exam, stealing advance copies of a final, writing down rules in one’s hand, or paying someone else to write a term paper, cheating appears to have gained acceptance among a growing number of students between 13 and 19.

In a 1978 study of cheating at twenty-two high schools in Georgia, it was found that cheating was common among good and poor students alike—although both boys and girls said they thought boys cheated more.

Why is student cheating on the rise? No one really knows. Some blame cheating on a general loss of good values among today’s youth. They point to facts showing increased damage of public things and school stealing and think that reports, such as Watergate（水门事件）, have disappointed youth about the honesty of people in higher positions.

Passage 1

I strongly believe that understanding is more important than love, especially when it comes to parenting and intimate relationships. As a psychologist for more than twenty years I can tell you that I have never had an adult look back at her childhood and complaining that her parents were too understanding. And similarly, I have met many divorced people who still love each other but yet they never really understood each other.

The painful reality is love is just not enough. I'll admit that there are people who I love and who I still need to better understand. I hope I'll continue my work to understand them. The willingness to understand is very important. It is not always easy, but healthy love is strengthened by the willingness to understand. Love without understanding will wilt like flowers without water.

Our egos are what seem to get in the way of understanding those who we love and care about. Often it is our need to be right that makes what others think and feel so wrong for us. I have certainly been quite guilty of this in some of my relationships.

As I have written repeatedly in my books, empathy is truly the emotional glue that holds all close relationships together. Empathy allows us to slow down and try to walk in the shoes of those we love. The deeper our empathy, the deeper—and healthier—our love. Not all relationships are meant to be. Yet all relationships that are meant to flourish in a healthy way, must stress understanding just as much, if not more, than love.

Passage 2

Finally, the Christmas season is over. We can take a long breath, put up our feet, sip from a cup of good tea and relax. The frenzy, starting from Black Friday right after Thanksgiving until Christmas Eve, of gift shopping, buying, wrapping, giving, receiving, opening, returning...is exhaustive and time-consuming, but it takes place every year.

There is considerable difference between the cultures in China and western countries when it comes to gift giving. In China, it is not polite to open a gift in front of the gift giver, and gift is only looked at after the guest has left. Here in America, gift givers always wrap their gifts, large or small, priceless or valueless, carefully and decorate them with colorful ribbons and little pretty paper flowers; and the lucky receiver is expected to open the gift right away in front of the giver, with great eagerness and curiosity, and should always express appreciation with the all time truthful comment, “this is just exactly what I wanted!” Well, as a matter of fact, most people would take their "always wanted” gifts back to the store to exchange for something they really wanted.

Finding a gift for somebody, even a close family member, you'll have to know what the person likes and shop for days before you can locate the perfect gift. But, still the person may not like the gift from you. Nowadays, stores would provide two copies of the receipts for anything they sell as a gift, one of which is included in the gift packaged so that the receiver can come back for an exchange. I know, it was unthinkable to cash out gift you get, but, times are different. Another good way to avoid all that shopping hassle is to purchase a gift card from one of the stores and send it to your niece, nephews, or a family member, so that they can get whatever they want or even keep the money.

- ()66. Finding a gift for somebody is a(n) _____.
A. easy job B. tough task C. must-be job D. arranged task

Passage 3

They already guide blind and disabled people; now dogs are to be trained to help people with dementia (痴呆). The duties of these “guide dogs for the mind” will include reminding their owners to take medication, as well as encouraging them to eat, drink and sleep at regular intervals.

The dementia dogs will be trained to respond to sound triggers in the home that prompt them to perform tasks. These could include delivering a bite-proof bag of medicine with a note inside reminding the patient to take it, or waking them up in the morning.

The idea was developed by design students at the Glasgow School of Art and will now be put into practice by Alzheimer’s Scotland and Dogs for the disabled.

Joyce Gray of Alzheimer’s Scotland said: “People in the early stages of dementia are still able to live a relative normal life, and dogs help to maintain routine.”

The other advantage of using the pets as companions is that conversation can be increasingly confusing for people with Alzheimer’s, but dogs can give them a sense of silent support and companionship. People light up when they see animals. They don’t need to communicate verbally but they can still interact. You can have a speechless bond.

The dog would also encourage the owner to take them out for walks, ensuring they keep exercising and interacting with other people.

D. It is not mentioned in the passage.
- ()73. What is true about the people suffering from dementia?
A. They would like to stay with other people.
B. They can maintain routine.
C. They will gradually lose the ability to live a normal life.

- D. They would like to talk in a different way.
- ()74. The guide dogs helping the people with dementia will _____.

C. act on the owners instructions
D. act on the trainers order
- ()75. Having a conversation with people with dementia will be _____.
A. difficult B. interesting C. confusing D. encouraging

Passage 4

It seems obvious that you don’t give away your product for free but this is exactly what indie rock group The Crimea did earlier this year. The band’s reasoning goes like this: more people will download the free album than would pay for it. Therefore more people will hear The Crimea’s music. These people will then pay money for concerts by the band and perhaps buy a T-shirt or other merchandise. If the band play regular concerts to crowds of 200 or 300 people they can make more money than they would from sales of a CD. There will always be some people who want something they can hold in their hands so they will release the CD into the shops too—but making money through sales of their music isn’t the top priority.

The story illustrates the creative thinking going on in the music business in response to dramatic changes over the last few years in the way that people buy music. Sales of music digitally---to computers, phones and MP3 players rose to $2 billion in 2006—an increase of almost 100 percent on the previous year—yet overall record company sales are down. People are simply not buying CDs in record shops in anything like the numbers they used to.

This trend looks set to continue so the big question for the music industry is whether they can successfully manage the move to being primarily a digital industry without profits falling to unacceptable levels.

There are both positive and negative signs. On the plus side, more and more people are buying music on mobile phones, which allows people to make impulse purchases—they can buy a song as soon as they hear it. Research by the UK mobile operator 3 suggested that 75 percent of 16 to 24-year-olds wanted to buy a track they liked as soon as they heard it. With so much competition for people’s disposable income, a product that you can sell immediately is a big advantage.

The bad news for record companies, however, is the amount of music that is downloaded illegally. Piracy—usually in the form of cheaply copied CDs—has long been an issue for the music business but the internet means music can be copied and distributed freely through file-sharing sites on a larger scale than ever before.

It is this situation that leads bands to start giving away their music for free and promises to make the next few years a very interesting time in the music business.

Part III Reading Comprehension (2 x20)

Directions: There are 4 passages in this part. Each passage is followed by some questions or incomplete sentences. For each of them there are 4 choices marked A, B, C and D. You should decide on the best choice and mark the corresponding letter on the Answer Sheet.

Passage 1

“If you want to see a thing well, reach out(伸出手) and touch it!”

That may seem a strange thing to say. But touching things can help you to see them better. Your eyes can tell you that a glass ball is round. But by holding it in your hands, you can feel how smooth (光滑) and cool the ball is. You can feel how heavy the glass is. When you feel all these about the ball, you really see it. With your skin, you can feel better. For example, your fingers can tell the difference between two coins in your pocket. You can feel a little drop of water on the back of your hand, too.

All children soon learn what "Don’t touch!" means. They hear it often. Yet most of us keep on touching things as we grow up. In shops, we touch things as we might buy: food, clothes. To see something well, we have to touch it. There are ways of learning to see well by feeling. One way is to close your eyes and try to feel everything that is touching your skin. Feel the shoes on your feet, the clothes on your body, the air on your skin. At first, it is not easy to feel these things. You are too used to (习惯于) them!

Most museums are just for looking. But today some museums have some things to touch. Their signs say, "Do touch!" There you can feel everything on show. If we want to see better, reach out and touch. Then you will really see!

The old Volkswagen Beetle —"The Bug"— is making a comeback. People who own them are planning to keep them forever. People who don't own them are paying high prices when they can find one for sale. It's more remarkable when you realize that VW doesn't even make them anymore!

Passage 3

There are many ways to learn about people of other lands. One way is to study the clothing other people wear. For thousands of years, people in different part of the world have worn very different types of clothing. There are four big reasons for this.

One reason might be religion. In many Moslem countries, women must wear veils to hide their faces. The veils must be worn in public. Veils are part of the Moslem religion. The second reason is that different materials are used in different countries. For instance, in France the materials used in clothing may be cotton, silk, wool, or many other man-made materials. Most people in China wear cotton.

The ways clothes are made are also very different. This is another reason why people dress differently. Western countries rely on machines to make most of their clothing. Someone living in India can use only hand power to make the clothing he needs.

World-wide differences in customs also lead to differences in clothing. A Mexican farmer wears a straw hat with a brim up. In China, a farmer wears a straw hat with a brim down. Both hats are used to protect the farmers from the sun. Some of these customs have come down through thousands of years.

The government of Beijing has spent a large amount of money on building these bridges. For their own safety, pedestrians should be encouraged to use them instead of risking their lives by dashing across the road. Old people, however, may find it a little difficult climbing up and down the steps, but it is still much safer than walking across the road with all the danger of moving traffic.

Overhead bridges serve a very useful purpose. Pedestrians, both old and young, should make it a habit to use them. This will prevent unnecessary accidents and loss of life.

Passage 3

There was a time when, if a lady got onto a crowded bus or train, a gentleman would immediately stand up and offer her his seat. No more, though. Today, a gentleman will probably look out of the window, or, if he feels a bit guilty, hide behind his newspaper. Either way, the lady will have to stand until someone else gets off.

You can’t entirely blame men for this change in manners. The days are gone when women could be referred to as the weaker sex. A whole generation of women has grown up demanding equality with men; not just equality in jobs or education, but in social attitudes. Hold a door open for some women and you’re likely to get an angry lecture on treating women as inferiors (能力低下的人) unable to open door for themselves. Take a girl out for a meal and she’ll probably insist on paying her share of the bill; though on second thoughts perhaps that’s not such a bad idea.

It’s no wonder, then, that men have given up some of the gestures of politeness and consideration which they used to show towards women. On the other hand, automatic male (men) politeness is perhaps slowly being replaced by true consideration for the needs of women, so that men can see women as equal human beings.

Maybe that’s worth standing in the bus or train.

- ()71. Today, when a lady gets on a crowded bus or train, a gentleman would probably _____.

B. read his newspaper

C. look out of the window

D. not stand up and offer her his seat

D. entirely wrong
- ()73. The new generation of women wants to be _____.
- A. treated not as the weaker sex

B. treated as the weaker sex

C. cared for on buses and trains

D. better treated than before
- ()74. According to the passage, which of the following is NOT correct?
- A. Some women may get angry if you open the door for them.

B. Girls don’t want you to pay for meal at all.

C. Some women may criticize you if you show too much politeness to them.

D. A girl may be unhappy if you insist on paying her share of the bill.
- ()75. From this passage, we know that_____.
- A. women need true consideration of their needs and feelings

B. men have given up some politeness they used to show to women

C. women often get angry if you’re polite to them

D. women should stand in the bus or train

Passage 4

“Family” is of course an elastic word. But when British people say that their society is based on family life, they are thinking of “family” in its narrow, peculiarly European sense of mother, father and children living together in their own house as an economic and social unit. Thus, every British marriage indicates the beginning of a new and independent family — hence the tremendous importance of marriage in British life.

For both the man and the woman, marriage means leaving one’s parents and starting one’s own life. The man’s first duty will then be to his wife, and the wife’s to her husband. He will be entirely responsible for her financial support, and she for the running of the new home. Their children will be their common responsibility and theirs alone. Neither the wife’s parents nor the husband’s, nor their brothers or sisters, aunts or uncles, have any right to interfere with them — they are their own masters.

Readers of novels like Jane Austen’s Pride and Prejudice will know that in former times marriage among wealthy families was arranged by the girl’s parents, that is, it was the parents’ duty to find a suitable husband for their daughter, preferably a rich one, and by skillful encouragement to lead him eventually to ask their permission to marry her. Until that time, the girl was protected and maintained in the parents’ home, and the financial relief of getting rid of her could be seen in their giving the newly married pair a sum of money called a dowry(嫁妆). It is very different today. Most girls of today get a job when they leave school and become financially independent before their marriage. This has had two results: a girl chooses her own husband, and she gets no dowry.

()76. What does the author mean by “ ‘Family’ is of course an elastic word”?

A. Different families have different ways of life.
B. Different nations have different families.
C. Different definitions could be given to the word.
D. Different times produce different families.

If you listen to American music, watch American television or magazines, you will probably agree that the most popular subject of these forms of entertainment is love. Romantic love always finds an audience in the United States. Falling in love, solving the problems of love, and achieving the happy ending --- the big wedding are subjects of interest to the adult as well as the teenage public. Millions of Americans celebrate Valentine's Day with special cards and gifts that announce their love to their mates, their friends, their coworkers, and their families. Popular songs tell us that “all the world loves a lover”. A popular saying is “Love conquers all”. Numerous columns in magazines and newspapers offer advice to the lovelorn, those with difficulties of the heart. To most Americans, romantic love is central to a happy life.

Passage 4

In 1939 two brothers, Mac and Dick McDonald, started a drive-in restaurant in San Bernardino, California. They carefully chose a busy corner for their location. They had run their own businesses for years, first a theater, then a barbecue（烤肉）restaurant, then another drive-in. But in their new operation, they offered a new, shortened menu: French fries, hamburgers, and sodas. To this small selection they added one new concept: quick service, no waiters or waitresses, and no tips.

Their hamburgers sold for fifteen cents. Cheese was another four cents. Their French fries and hamburgers had a remarkable uniformity, for the brothers had developed a strict routine for the preparation of their food, and they insisted on their cooks’ sticking to their routine. Their new drive-in became incredibly popular, particularly for lunch. People drove up by the hundreds during the busy noontime. The self-service restaurant was so popular that the brothers had allowed ten copies of their restaurant to be opened. They were content with this modest success until they met Ray Kroc.

Kroc was a salesman who met the McDonald brothers in 1954, when he was selling milkshake-mixing machines. He quickly saw the unique appeal of the brothers’ fast-food restaurants and bought the right to franchise（特许经营）other copies of their restaurants. The agreement struck included the right to duplicate the menu. The equipment, even their red and white buildings with the golden arches（拱门）.

Today McDonald’s is really a household name. Its names for its sandwiches have come to mean hamburger in the decades since the day Ray Kroc watched people rush up to order fifteen-cent hamburgers. In 1976, McDonald’s had over $ 1 billion in total sales. Its first twenty-two years is one of the most incredible success stories in modern American business history.

()76. This passage mainly talks about_____.

A. the development of fast food services

Passage 1

Thousands of years ago, in the middle of an ocean, miles from the nearest island, an undersea volcano broke out. The hot liquid got higher and higher and spread wider and wider. In this way, an island rose up in the sea.

As time went on, hot sun and cool rains made the rock split and break to pieces. Sea waves hit against the rock. In this way, soil and sand came into being.

Nothing lived on the naked soil. And then the wind and birds brought plant seeds, spiders and other little living things there. Only plants could grow first. Only they, in sunlight, could produce food from the soil, water and air. While many animals landed on the island, they could find no food. A spider made its web uselessly, because there were no insects(昆虫) for its web to catch. Insects couldn’t stay until there were plants for them to eat. So plants had to be the first life on this new island.

Passage 2

Ernest Miller Hemingway was born on July 21, 1899 in Oak Park, Illinois. In the nearly sixty two years of his life that followed, he built a literary fame unsurpassed（无法超越）in the twentieth century.

As a boy he was taught by his father to hunt and fish along the shores and in the forests around Lake Michigan. The Hemingways had a summer house in northern Michigan, and the family would spend the summer months there trying to stay cool. Hemingway would either fish the different streams that ran into the lake, or would take the small boat out to do some fishing there. He would also go squirrel hunting in the woods, discovering early in life the peace to be found while alone in the forest or going through a stream. It was something he could always go back to throughout his life, and though he often found himself living in major cities like Chicago, Toronto and Paris early in his life, once he became successful he chose somewhat isolated places to live in.

When he wasn’t hunting or fishing his mother taught him the good points of music. She was a skilled singer who once had wished a life on stage, but at last settled down with her husband and spent her time by giving voice and music lessons to local children, including her own. Hemingway was never talented for music and suffered through singing practices and music lessons, however, the musical knowledge he got from his mother helped him share in his first wife Hadley’s interest in the piano.

Passage 3

What will man be like in the future — in 5000 or even 50000 years from now? We can only make a guess, of course, but we can be sure that he will be different from what he is today. For man is slowly changing all the time.

Let us take an obvious example. Man, even five hundred years ago, was shorter than he is today. Now, on average, men are about three inches taller. Five hundred years is a relatively short period of time, so we may assume that man will continue to grow taller.

Again, in the modern world we use our brains a great deal. Even so, we still make use of only about 20% of the brain’s capacity. As time goes on, however, we shall have to use our brains more and more, and eventually we shall need larger ones. This is likely to bring about a physical change tool — the head, in particular the forehead, will grow larger.

Nowadays our eyes are in constant use. In fact, we use them so much that very often they become weaker and we have to wear glasses. But over very long period of time it is likely that man’s eyes will grow stronger.

On the other hand, we tend to make less use of our arms and legs. These, as a result, are likely to grow weaker. At the same time, however, our fingers will grow more sensitive because they are used a great deal in modern life.

But what about hair? It will probably disappear from the body altogether in course of time because it does not serve a useful purpose any longer. In the future, then, both sexes are likely to be bald.

Perhaps all this gives the impression that future man will not be a very attractive creature to look at. This may well be true. All the same, in spite of all these changes, future man will still have a lot in common with us. He will still be a human being, with thoughts and emotions similar to our own.

()71. The passage tells us about _____ .

- A. how man’s life will be in the future
- B. how future man will look like
- C. the fact that man’s organs will function differently in the future
- D. the fact that man is growing uglier as time passes

()72. There is evidence that man is changing, _____ .

- A. he has been growing taller over the past 500 years
- B. he has got stronger eyes than he ever had
- C. his hair is getting thinner and thinner
- D. his limbs are getting weaker because he tends to make less use of them

()73. Man’s forehead will grow larger because _____ .

- A. he will make use of only about 20% of the brain’s capacity

B. the other 80% of his brain will grow in due time

C. he had rather narrow forehead a few hundred years ago

D. he will have to use his brain more and more as time goes on ()74. Future man will probably _____ .

- A. have smaller eyes
- B. have larger eyes
- C. see better
- D. have to wear better glasses

()75 .The reason for believing that future man will be different is that he _____ .

- A. will grow stronger
- B. never stops changing
- C. hopes for a change
- D. will live a different life

Passage 4

Auctions（拍卖）are public sales of goods, made by an officially approved auctioneer. He asked the crowd assembled in the auction room to make offers, or bids, for the various items on sale. He encouraged buyers to bid higher figures, and finally named the highest bidder as the buyer of the goods. This is called “knocking down” the goods, for the bidding ends when the auctioneer bangs a small hammer on a table at which he stands. This is often set on a raised platform called a rostrum.

The ancient Romans probably invented sales by auction, and the English word comes from the Latin auction, meaning “increase”. The Romans usually sold in this way the spoils taken in war, these sales were called “sub hash”, meaning “under the spear”, a spear being stuck in the ground as a signal for a crowd to gather. In England in the eighteenth century, goods were often sold “by the candle”: a short candle was lit by the auctioneer, and bids could be made while it stayed alight.

Practically all goods whose qualities varied are sold by auction. Among these are coffee, hides, skins, wool, tea, cocoa, furs, spices, fruit, vegetables and wines. Auction sales are also usual for land and property, antique furniture, pictures, rare books, old china and similar works of art. The auction rooms at Christie’s and Sotheby’s in London and New York are world famous.

An auction is usually advertised beforehand with full particulars of the articles to be sold and where and when they can be viewed by prospective buyers. If the advertisement cannot give full details, catalogues are printed, and each group of goods to be sold together, called a “lot”, is usually given a number. The auctioneer need not begin with Lot 1 and continue in numerical order; he may wait until he registers the fact that certain dealers are in the room and then produce the lots they are likely to be interested in. The auctioneer’s services are paid for in the form of a percentage of the price the goods are sold for. The auctioneer therefore has a direct interest in pushing up the bidding as high as possible.

A wealthy Persian Prince loved good stories. The older he grew, the fonder he became of them .But he always regretted they had to have an end. So he decided to give half his wealth and his beautiful daughter to the man who could tell him a story without an end. Anybody who failed would be sent to prison for life .The risk was so great that nobody came to the palace to tell the Prince a story for a whole year. Then one day a tall, handsome young man came and said he wanted to tell a story that would go on forever .The Prince agreed but warned him what would happen if he failed. “The risk is worth the head of your fair daughter,” the young man replied poetically(得体地) .He then began this well-known story.

Then a fourth locust ,flying at great speed ,pushed through the hole and came out with two grains of corn .Then a fifth locust came and.....”

“Stop” shouted the Prince,” I can’t,” answered the young man. “I must go on until I tell you what happened to each grain of the corn.” “But that will go on forever .” The Prince protested. “Exactly” the young man replied, and he smile as he turned towards the Prince’s beautiful young daughter.

Most cities and/or states in the U.S. collect a sales tax on almost everything you buy. You must ask when you move into a new community how much the local sales tax is, and what items are and not tax table. Both taxable items and the amount of tax vary considerably form place to place, form one or two percent in some places up to eight or ten in others. The New York City sales tax, for examples, is currently 8%,so if you buy a pair of $ 40 shoes you will actually have to pay $ 43.20.This makes paying and getting correct change much more difficult(not to mention making everything more expensive.)

Waiters and waitresses, cab drivers, hotel bellboys, barbers and hairdressers and all sorts of other people must be tipped. Their employers give them low wages because it is expected that you, the customer, will make up the difference. If you don’t, the service person can’t earn a living. Tipping also varies form place to place, generally in the area of 15% your bill (before taxes), but again you should ask local residents whom to tip and how much.

Part II Reading Comprehension (2 x20)

Directions: There are 4 passages in this part. Each passage is followed by some questions or incomplete sentences. For each of them there are 4 choices marked A, B, C and D. You should decide on the best choice and mark the corresponding letter on the Answer Sheet.

Passage 1

Procrastination(犹豫不决) is a disease of the mind. A scientific study in recent years has shown that it is a close relative of sadness and attention disorder; that procrastinators tend to be the result of low self-confidence and are likely to experience anxiety.

The research has shown, what is more, that the illness has become quite common. Susan Robert, a behavioral psychologist who has written a book called Living With Procrastination, says that about a quarter of the adult population of the United States and Canada report having serious problems with procrastination. “when we say ‘serious’ we mean people for whom procrastination causes great discomfort and suffering. We’ve found that such people are more troubled by daily life than others, that possibility of anxiety is much higher among them than in the rest of the population.”

In a society driven by achievement, it is little wonder that not being able to work at full steam will bring people sadness. Surely, in the land of opportunity, this anxiety has produced an industry of experts offering solutions. Many books and specialist solutions have appeared. In exchange for $19.95, Dr. Jerome Murray will send out an audio-cassette called “Protect your future from the thief of procrastination.” Dr. Murray promises that if you follow his step-by-step rules you will be empowered to “turn self-defeat into self-realization”. “Since the start of the 1990s, procrastination has been taken more and more seriously,” said Dr. Roberts, who has been treating patients troubled by the condition for more than 20 years. “It is now recognized as a true mental health problem and is being seen more as a psychological problem and less as a moral issue.”

Passage 4

How often one hears children wishing they were grown up, and old people wishing they were young again. Each age has its pleasures and its pains, and the happiest person is the one who enjoys what each age gives him without wasting his time in useless regrets.

Youth is a time when there are few tasks to make life difficult. If a child has good parents, he is fed, looked after and loved whatever he may do. It is impossible that he will ever again in his life be given so much without having to do anything in return. In addition, life is always presenting new things to the child---things that have lost their interest for older people because they are too well-known. But a child has his pains: he is not so free to do what he wishes to do; he is continually being told not to do things, or being punished for what he has done wrong.

When the young man starts to earn his own living, he can no longer expect others to pay for his food, his clothes, and his room, but has to work if he wants to live comfortably. If he spends most of his time playing about in the way that he used to as a child, he will go hungry. And if he breaks the laws of society as he used to break the laws of his parents, he may go hungry. And if he breaks the laws of society as he used to break the laws of his parents, he may go to prison. If, however, he works hard, keeps out of trouble and has good health, he can have the great happiness of building up for himself his own position in society.

Part IV Reading Comprehension (2 x20)

Directions: There are 4 passages in this part. Each passage is followed by some questions or incomplete sentences. For each of them there are 4 choices marked A, B, C and D. You should decide on the best choice and mark the corresponding letter on the Answer Sheet.

Passage 1

Advertising follows us everywhere. Whenever we turn on the television, listen to the radio or open a newspaper or magazine, we are bombarded with advertisements. They invite us to try a new type of orange juice, wear X-brand jeans or watch the latest film. They beg us to notice the difference and discover the advantages. They exist to make us want what they are selling.

Strangely, the more we are exposed to advertising, the less we notice it. We get so used to seeing advertisements everywhere that they become largely invisible, as if they were another part of our everyday lives. But do that mean that we are no longer affected by them?

One advertising expert believes that the special power of advertising lies in the fact that we do not pay much attention to it. Dr. Krugman, who was head of research for a major advertising company for many years, says that the less we notice ads, the more we are affected by them. Dr. Krugman believes that when we stop noticing advertisements, we lower our defenses, allowing the messages of the advertisements to be taken in and stored, ready to be triggered into action at the right moment. He says that the effects of advertising on the individual are small, but over a period of time they have a powerful effect on the masses.

A market analyst says that all advertising, no matter how innocent, is misleading in some way.

When asked about the power of advertising in research surveys, most people agree that it works, but not on them. Almost everyone believes that they have complete control over how thousands of ads they see every day affect them.

C. to watch the latest film D. what they advertise
- ()72. The more we see ads, the less we _____.
A. pay attention to them B. feel tired of them

A. all of us B. most of us
C. some of us D. a few individuals
- ()74. Dr. Krugman believes that when we stop noticing ads, we begin to _____.
A. like them B. be on guard against them
C. accept them D. dislike them
- ()75. When asked about the power of ads, most people agree that ads are ineffective on _____.
A. individuals B. masses C. others D. them

Passage 2

Like most people, I was brought up to look upon life as a process of getting. It was not until in my late thirties that I made this important discovery: giving away makes life so much more exciting. You need not worry if you lack money. This is how I experimented with giving away. If an idea for improving the window display of a neighborhood store flashes to me, I step in and make the suggestion to the storekeeper. One discovery I made about giving away is that it is almost impossible to give away anything in this world without getting something back, though the return often comes in an unexpected form. One Sunday morning the local post office delivered an important special delivery letter to my home, though it was addressed to me at my office. I wrote the postmaster a note of appreciation. More than a year later I needed a post office box for a new business I was starting. I was told at the window that there were no boxes left, and that my name would have to go on a long waiting list. As I was about to leave, the postmaster appeared in the doorway. He had overheard our conversation. “Wasn’t it you that wrote us that letter a year ago about delivering a special delivery to your home?” I said yes. “Well, you certainly are going to have a box in this post office if we have to make one for you. You don’t know what a letter like that means to us. We usually get nothing but complaints.”

- ()76. From the passage, we understand that _____.
A. the author did not understand the importance of giving until he was in late thirties
B. the author was like most people who were mostly receivers rather than givers
C. the author received the same education as most people during his childhood
D. the author liked most people as they looked upon life as a process of getting
- ()77. According to the author _____.
A giving means you will lack money
B. the excitement of giving can bring you money
C. you don’t have to be rich in order to give
D. when you give away money, you will be rich
- ()78.The author wrote a note of appreciation to the post office because_____.
A. he knew what such a note would mean to the post office.
B. he had discovered giving-away made life all the more exciting.
C. he believed he would get something back by doing so.
D. the postman delivered an important letter in time.
- ()79. When the author needed a post office box, _____.
A. he had to put his name on a waiting list
B. he wrote the postmaster a note of appreciation
C. many people had applied for post-office boxes before him
D. he asked the postmaster to make one for him
- ()80. In reply to the postmaster’s question, the author said _____.
A. it was the special delivery
B. it was the post-office box

D. it was he who wrote him a letter a year ago

Passage 3

Generations of Americans have been brought up to believe that a good breakfast is one of life’s essentials. Eating breakfast at the start of the day, we have all been told, is as necessary as putting gasoline in the family car before starting a trip.

But for many people the thought of food first thing in the morning is by no means a pleasure. So despite all the efforts, they still take no breakfast. Between 1977 and 1983, the latest years for which figures are available, the number of people who didn’t have breakfast increased by 33 percent —from 8.8 million to 11.7 million —according to the Chicago-based Market Research Corporation of America.

For those who feel pain or guilt about not eating breakfast, however, there is some good news. Several studies in the last few years indicate that, for adults especially, there may be nothing wrong with omitting breakfast. “Going without breakfast does not affect performance.” Said Arnold E.Bender, the former professor of nutrition at Queen Elizabeth College in London. “nor does giving people breakfast improve performance.” Scientific evidence linking breakfast to better health or better performance is surprisingly inadequate, and most of the recent work involves children, not adults. “The literature,”says one researcher, Dr. Ernesto Pollitt at the University of Texas, “is poor”.

- ()81. The passage is mainly concerned with _____.
A. a study of the Chicago-based Market Research Corporation
B. one of life’s essentials
C. latest figures of people who don’t eat breakfast
D. breakfast and human health
- ()82. For those who do not take breakfast, the good news is that _____.
A. several studies have been done in the past few years
B. not eating breakfast does no harm to one’s health

- ()83. In the third paragraph, “nor does giving people breakfast improve performance.” means _____.
A. anyone without breakfast does improve his performance
B. not giving people breakfast improves performance
C. people having breakfast do improve their performance
D. having breakfast does not improve performance, either
- ()84. The word “literature”in the last sentence refers to _____.

Passage 4

Each day, computers help millions of people do their jobs more effectively. For example, they can help managers decide on a future course of action, and they can then help with the follow-up checks on performance to see if planned goals are being achieved. By using accurate and timely facts supplied by data base management software, a manager can do a better job of identifying problems and opportunities. And managers may not need to spend as much time in controlling when a computer can respond with a triggered report if actual performance varies from what was planned. The time saved in controlling may allow managers to give more attention to employees’ concerns, and this, in turn, may result in improved morale(士气)。

But employment benefits certainly aren’t restricted to managers. Healthcare researchers and other scientists also use computers to conduct research into complex problem areas that couldn’t otherwise be studied. Lawyers use online legal data banks to locate precedent(先前的) cases in order to serve clients better. Salespeople can receive more timely information about products in stock, can promise customers that their sales orders will be handled promptly, and can thus improve their sales performance because of the computer system. And the job duties of some office and factory workers have changed from routine, repetitive operations to more varied and appealing tasks through computer usage. For example, office workers who understand text processing, computing, and data communication usually have vital roles and are given critical office functions to perform.

- ()86. Which of the following examples shows the controlling function of a computer?
 - A. Helping managers decide on a future course of action.
 - B. Helping managers check if planned goals are reached.
 - C. Helping managers save time in writing a report.
 - D. Helping managers design a spreadsheet package.
- ()87. Employees may have better morale if _____.
 - A. they have more time to rest
 - B. a computer is used in their work

Passage 1

Who takes care of the elderly in the United States today? The fact is that family members provide over 80% of the care that elderly people need. In most cases the elderly live in their own homes. A very small percentage of America's elderly live in nursing homes.

Samuel Preston, a sociologist at the University of Pennsylvania, studied how the American family is changing. He reported that by the time the average American couple reaches about 40 years of age, their parents are usually still alive. The statistics show the change in lifestyles and responsibilities of aging (老龄化) Americans. The average middle-aged couple can look forward to caring for elderly parents sometime after their own children have grown up. Moreover, because people today live longer after an illness than people did years ago, family members

After practicing as a surgeon for several years, Dr. Ginoux decided to apply for membership in the American College of Surgeons (美国外科医生学会), a highly selective and distinguished (著名的) professional organization.

As part of the application procedure (手续), Dr. Ginoux was asked to prepare a list of all the operations performed in the previous even years. Slowly, as she worked on the long list, she began to feel uncertain. She began to question some of her decisions. Had she used the best technique in that case? Maybe, in this case, she should have given one more test before operating? On the other hand, maybe she should have... Would the doctors on the selection committee understand that, as the only trained surgeon in the area, she usually could not get advice from others and therefore, had to rely completely on her own judgment? For the first time, Dr. Ginoux felt lonely and isolated.

The longer Dr. Ginoux worked on the application forms, the more depressed she became. As hope faded, she wondered if a “country doctor” had a realistic chance of being accepted by the American College of Surgeons.

Passage 4

Are some people born clever and others born stupid? Or is intelligence developed by our environment and our experience? Strangely enough, the answer to these questions is yes. To some extent our intelligence is given to us at birth, and no amount of special education can make a genius out of a child born with low intelligence. On the other hand, a child who lives in a boring environment will develop his intelligence less than one who lives in rich and varied surroundings. Thus the limits of a person’s intelligence are fixed at birth, whether or not he reaches those limits will depend on his environment. This view, now held by most experts, can be supported in a number of ways.

It is easy to show that intelligence is to some extent something we are born with. The closer the blood relationship between two people is, the closer they are likely to be in intelligence. Thus if we take two unrelated people at random from the population, it is likely that their degree of intelligence will be completely different. If, on the other hand, we take two identical twins, they will very likely be as intelligent as each other. Relations like brothers and sisters, parents and children, usually have similar intelligence, and this clearly suggests that intelligence depend on birth.

Imagine now that we take two identical twins and put them in different environments. We might send one, for example, to a university and the other to a factory where the work is boring. We would soon find differences in their intelligence developing, and this indicates that environment as well as birth plays a part. This conclusion is also suggested by the fact that people who live in close contact with each other, but who are not related at all are likely to have similar degree of intelligence.

- ()66.If a child is born with low intelligence, he can _____.
- A. not reach his intelligence in his life
- B. go beyond his intelligence limits in rich surroundings

Passage 1

The management of logistical (物流的)operations is about movement and storage of materials and finished products. Logistical operations start with the initial shipment of a material or component part from a supplier and are finished when a manufactured or processed product is delivered to a customer.

From the initial purchase of a material or component, the logistical process adds value by moving inventory (移动库存) when and where needed. If all goes well, a material gains value at each step of its transformation into finished inventory. In other words, an individual part has greater value after it is put into a machine. Likewise, the machine has greater value once it is delivered to a buyer.

To support manufacturing, work-in-process inventory must be moved to support final assembly. The cost of each component and its movement becomes part of the value-added process. The final or meaningful value that is added occurs only with final ownership transfer of products to customers when and where specified.

For a large manufacturer, logistical operations may consist of thousands of movements, which finally develop into the delivery of products to an industrial user, retailer, wholesaler, dealer, or other customer. For a large retailer, logistical operations may start with gaining products for resale and may finish with consumer pickup or delivery. For a hospital, logistics starts with purchasing and ends with full support of patient surgery and recovery. The significant point is that regardless of the size and type of enterprise, logistics is essential and requires continuous management attention. For better understanding it is useful to divide logistical operations into three areas: physical distribution, manufacturing support, and procurement (筹措、采购).

- ()41. Logistical operations are concerned with _____.

A. transfer of materials and finished products

B. manufacturing of materials and finished products

C. inventory of materials and finished products

D. both A and C
- ()42. The logistical process increases value by _____.

Passage 4

Mountain climbers around the world dream about going up Mountain Everest (珠穆朗玛峰). It is the highest mountain in the world. But many people who have climbed the mountain have left waste material that is harming the environment.

A team of Americans is planning the largest clean-up effort ever on Mountain Everest. They will make the risky trip up the mountain next month.

The team of eight Americans will be guided by more than twenty Sherpas of Nepal (尼泊尔夏尔巴人). Their goal is to remove all the trash they see. They will spend two months cleaning up the mountain by gathering oxygen bottles, fuel containers, batteries, drink cans, human waste and other kinds of trash. They are expected to remove at least three tons of trash in large bags.

Team leader Robert Hoffman is making his fourth trip up the mountain. He says he hopes to bring Everest to the condition it was in before the first successful climb fifty years ago. He says he hopes the effort will influence other people to clean up the environment closer home.

Part VI Writing（1X20）

On College Students' Taking Part-time Jobs

In contemporary society, college students' taking par-time jobs has become a hot topic. It has a great influence on college students' life.

I believe there are both benefits and drawbacks for this issue. Clearly, in addition to getting an income, college students taking part-time jobs may enjoy a more exciting lifestyle as they can meet people from all walks of life and develop a sense of responsibility which can't be learned in the classroom.

On the other hand, the negative effects of part-time job are also obvious. Students who take part-time jobs may have less time focusing on study, and if they seek to excel in both the part-time job and study, the busy life they lead may put their health at risk. Besides, the society is much more complicated than they expected, they may be exposed to danger sometimes.

In my opinion, college students ought to strike a balance between academic study and part-time jobs. And always bear in mind that a student’s priority is to acquire knowledge at school.

范文：On Lifelong Learning

As the old saying goes, "It's never too late to learn", we should always realize that the most important thing in this society is keeping learning. Only by doing this can we keep up with the pace of the time.

It is necessary for people of all ages to learn. First, with the development of science and technology, knowledge is updated every day. If one doesn’t want to learn, his knowledge will be out of date. Second, learning is an experience of seeking, gaining and owning. It’s great fun to learn. Only by learning can one find the joy in life. Otherwise, his life will be a boring one.

In my opinion, I would like to enter for the self-education to learn new things in order that I can get some diplomas. Because I think many diplomas will help me to strengthen my ability and get a better job.

Part VI Writing (1X20)

范文：

Is Frustration a Bad Thing?

Since frustration seems to be a negative feeling, some people may tend to think that frustration is bad for us. They believe that frustration may cause serious mental problems. People suffering from such psychological problems often resort to violence or suicide, which poses a big threat to the people around them and thus causes instability in the whole society.

Most people, however, hold a different view. They maintain that frustration is beneficial to people. It encourages people to practice their skills and adapt themselves to the competitive society. Going through some setbacks may contribute to the shape of their personal character.

In my view, frustration is part of our life experience. As long as we handle it in a wise way and take it as our source of inspiration, we may ultimately enjoy the glory of success.

Part III Reading Comprehension (40 points)

Passage One

62.B 【解析】猜词解题。根据第二段第一句意，向父母求助可能是一个出路，也就是解决方法。

63.A 【解析】细节理解题。根据题干定位到最后一段，冒号后准确给出了解决方法，可知选 A。

64.D 【解析】细节理解题。根据最后一段后两句可知。

65.B 【解析】主旨理解题。将全文进行总结可知本文主要讲述 80 后夫妻养孩子的问题并提出了“拼养”的解决方法。

Passage Two

66.C 【解析】细节理解题。第一段明确表示跟自然灾害作斗争是很困难的，与 C 选项“人类应对自然灾害的能力有限”属于同义改写，故选 C。

67.D 【解析】细节理解题。根据第二段第二句可知“不让人们知道海啸的严重性”不属于阻止海啸破坏的措施。

68.C 【解析】细节理解题。根据第三段第二句可知，海啸是由水下地震引起的。

69.B 【解析】细节理解题。根据文章结尾可知选 B。

70.C 【解析】细节理解题。第二段开头明确表示完全阻止海啸破坏是不可能的，故 A 不对；文中在讲到海啸影响时并没有把富有国家和贫困国家作比较，故 B 不对；第三段首句表明当海啸很近时，预警系统并不十分有效，故 D 也不正确;由第二段第三句可知 C 正确。

Passage Three

71.B 【解析】细节理解题。由题干定位到段第一句和第二段第二句可知 B 正确。A 选项：全球温度影响了经济发展的速率；C 选项：营养不良在贫困国家导致了严重的健康问题；D 选项：经济趋势与人口和自然灾害有关。A、C、D 都具有干扰性，但它们都不是全球人道主义论坛的发现，所以审清题目很重要。

72.A 【解析】细节理解题。根据文章第三段 But even before its release, the report drew criticism from some experts on climate and risk, who questioned its methods and conclusions.可知 A 正确。

73.B 【解析】细节理解题。由第五段 2 中的"methodological embarrassment"以及 3,4 行可知，他认为该论坛报告从方法论上讲不够充分，是无效的。A 选项：它的数据看起来很尴尬；C 选项：它值得我们最密切的关注；D 选项：它的结论被故意夸大。这三个选项在文中都没有依据，故 B 正确。

74.D 【解析】细节理解题。有题干人名定位到第六段可知 D 正确。

75.D 【解析】细节理解题。根据题干定位到最后一段第一二行，可知 D 正确。

Passage Four

76.C 【解析】推理题。文章在开头即提到了 Iceberg Water,讲到它在北美的人气达到了新的高度，其源头是取自加拿大纽芬兰的冰川。从全篇来看，本义以瓶装水为论述的核心，说明其在当今社会的火爆程度，这与开头所述 Iceberg Water 人气达到新高的叙述意义一致。而在提到 Iceberg Wage 之后的第二段，文章紧接着介绍了一位瓶装水专业人士对瓶装水流行原因的看法。Iceberg Water 很可能是一种瓶装水，文章以它来开头有引出论题的作用。A 说是一种冰水，B 说是一种普通自来水，C 说是一种瓶装水，D 说是一种矿物质水。故 C 是正确答案。

77.B 【解析】语义猜测题。此句需结合上下文来理解。这句话出现在第二段，从这一段可知这位饮用水大师自小就对瓶装水兴趣浓厚，甚至为了追踪最喜爱的牌子特意保有一份水杂志。作者的这些叙述显然传达

了一个信息：瓶装水可谓是此人的至爱。那么在这种隐含意义下，他所说的瓶装水与自来水的区别决不真正是二者的实在区别，而是要突出瓶装水要优于自来水；连狗都能分辨这种区别，这是一种夸张说法，意在表明二者的差距之大。

78.D【解析】猜词题。fancier 应该是 fancy 的比较级，fancy 有“别致、价格高昂的”的意思，brands 指品牌。这个词在第五段最后一句中，意思是:饭店一般把酒价标高 100%到 150% ，而瓶装水常常会达到 300%到 500%，不过水要比酒便宜的多，同时许多 fancier brands 在商店里买不到，因此用餐者就没有注意或者并不在乎。从最后一句可以猜测，fancier brands 很有可能是更贵的水品牌，因为如果这些奢侈牌子在商店里买不到，人们就无从知道它的合理价格，即便到了饭店以高价挨宰（标高 500%），他们也并不知情，也就注意不到或不会在乎。只有这样逻辑才能通顺。

79 A【解析】细节题。第六段开头说“结果，一些饭店加大力度售卖瓶装水”，证明他们这样做的原因在上一段已经给出说明，第五段的第一句“瓶装公司和饭店都对销售品牌瓶装水的利润垂涎三尺”就是给出的原因。

80.B【解析】细节题。由最后一段可知只有 B 与原文意义一致。

范文:

The Attitude toward Crisis

In our life, there is not always pain road and we may confront various crises, such as diseases accidents, failure in exams and so on. Toward these crises, different people have different attitudes.

To most common people, crisis in life is just like a mountain lies before them and prevent them from walking forward. Once they are in face of any crises, they give up easily. Only one small difficulty is enough to make them lose their hearts. As a result, they yield without any effort.

However, there are also many people who choose to face the crisis directly. In their eyes, difficulty and failure is just an experience that is unavoidable on their way to the success. Such crisis can be defeated by their intelligence and bravery. As long as they calm down, they will from the solution to the problems.

In my view, of course, I tend to be in favor of the second attitude. Only when we change the sorrow into power, can we be the winner before the crisis. Remember, crisis itself is not fearful. What matters is your attitudes towards it.

Happiness in My Mind

With the rapid development of our society, happiness has aroused the public attention.However, there is no general agreement on the definition of happiness.

What is happiness in my mind? I am inclined to the following opinions. First of all, it is obvious that happiness means that I possess a happy family full of joy and harmony. What' s more, there is no denying that happiness means that I have a great number of friends, who can give me support and company in my life and work. In the end, it goes without saying that happiness means that i have a suitable job, which can offer good economic support to my family and life.

All in all, happiness is very significant to us. People without happiness are just like living in darkness while happy people are more likely to achieve greater success. If everyone were to pursue the happiness in a right way, our society and life would be much better.

Part VI Writing

It is Time to Stop Doodling

From the picture, we can discover that a man is still carving “I have already travelled here” with a knife on the door of his own house after his return from a trip. Therefore, we can safely come to a conclusion that people tend to be doing some damage to the environment while traveling.

Why does this phenomenon take place? Several factors could account for it. To begin with, it is clear that people aren’t aware of the importance of protecting the environment when they travel. What's more, most people are in the bad habit of leaving something in their scenic spot, of which their doodle is given the priority. Last but not least, the regulations and rules are not strict and specific enough in the travel destination.

In view of the seriousness of this issue, it is crucial that relevant laws and regulations be worked out to solve the problem. Meanwhile, people should be educated to pay special attention to environment protection while travelling. With joint efforts, I believe the bad phenomenon will be a thing of the past.

69.【精析】B 事实细节题。题干的大意是：“甲壳虫”汽车有什么问题?根据文章第四段第三句可知，在冬天，大点儿的汽车很容易将雪和泥溅在“甲壳虫”汽车上面，所以 A、C 项表述错误,B 项表述正确。文章并未提及选项 D。故选 B。

70.【精析】D 推理判断题。题干的大意是:依据国家公路交通安全管理局可推断出什么?根据文章最后一句可知，国家公路交通安全管理局并无证据显示“甲壳虫”汽车的使用有什么问题，也就是说，“甲壳虫”汽车完全可以使用。故 D 项正确

92.【翻译】假定他不来的话，我们可不可以不带他去？

- 【精析】B 应改为 was。本题考查主谓一致。“neither of+名词/代词复数”作主语时，谓语用单数。

- 【精析】C 应改为 than。no sooner...than 意为“一……就……”，为固定搭配。
- 99.【翻译】他昨晚一定熬夜了，是吗？

- 【考点】 定语从句和强调句
- 【解析】 由“It was”应想到本句是一个强调句,强调句的结构为“it is/was+被强调部分+that+其他”。首先排除 B, C 项。再分析句子结构可知,第一个空后应为一个定语从句,先行词为 the factory,故定语从句的引导词应为 where,并在从句中作状语。故本题选 D。
36. 【答案】 D
- 【翻译】 我们必须得在 7 点以前到达那里。这就是我们不得不这么早出发的原因。
- 【考点】 名词性从句
- 【解析】 分析句子结构可知,本句既可以是一个定语从句,也可以是一个表语从句。若本句是一个定语从句,先行词应为选项 A, B 中的 the reason,此时其后的定语从句引导词应为 why,不可再加 for,故选项 A、B 均不正确。所以本句只能是个表语从句,表示原因时引导词应用 why,不可再加 that,故选 D。
37. 【答案】 B
- 【翻译】 只有你不介意在巴黎转机,你才可以在今晚飞到伦敦。

- 【考点】 动词语态
- 【解析】 “feel/look/seem/appear/taste/sound/smell/prove/remain 等+形容词”主动形式表示被动含义,所以排除 D 项。又因为问句中用了一般现在时,答句中无明显的过去时间,故本题选 C。

Part II Cloze

41. 【考点】 逻辑推理题
- 【解析】 B 从本句谓语 has been around 语意的延续特征看,空缺处中的主语不会具体的某一项事件(event)或一次探险(adventure),短文也不仅仅是对雪人的描述(description),至少还有关于它的发现过程、踪迹等。全篇文章讲述的应是有关雪人的传说(story)。另外在第三段和最后一段的开头两次提及了 story,故选 B。
42. 【考点】 逻辑推理题
- 【解析】 D 本句句意为:雪人的传说已经流传有好多年(many years)了。从第二段的 in the 1920s,第三段的 in 1951,以及第四段的 in 1964 可以推断出关于雪人的传说是近几十年的事情。最早的报道始于 1920s,距今不足百年,排除 A 项(centuries);因为并非相对于什么时间而言,所以排除 B 项(too long);C 项(some time)的时间并不明确,也可以排除。故选 D。

43. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 C 上一句提到有人报道过关于雪人的发现,空缺处所在句则为来自当地人的另一线索。hear from 意为“收到某人的来信”;care for 意为“关心,照顾”。read about 表示“(从报纸、杂志上)通过阅读方式获悉,得知……的信息”;know of 意为“间接听人说过而得知,听说”。当地人说他们对于 snowman 早有耳闻,还称其为“Yeti”。根据句意,选 C。
44. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 A 上文已有人们对于 Yeti 的一系列认识,根据 had caught Yetis on two occasions 表示的含义,用 even(甚至于)表现出前后行为的递进关系,使人注意到话语中令人吃惊的语气。其他三项均不合题意。
45. 【考点】 语法结构题
- 【解析】 B 注意前文的肯定意义和 none 的否定意义。虽然(though)没有找出任何东西作为证据,但他们说甚至两次逮住过雪人。连词 though 在此引导一个让步状语从句,准确地将前文“..they said they had caught...”和后文“none has ever been produced as evidence”的两种陈述形成鲜明的对比。另外三个选项中,as 引导原因或时间状语从句;when 和 until 引导时间状语从句,均不合题意。
46. 【考点】 逻辑推理题
- 【解析】 D 从本段中的“..took photographs of...”,和下段中的“Further efforts...But the only things people have ever found were more footprints.”来看,关于雪人的传说在原来的基础上并无新的进展,故排除 A 项。第三、四、五段的第一句话分别提到 Over the years..., Further efforts have been..., These days...,说明有关雪人的传说仍在延续(continue)。故选 D。
47. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 D Shipton 认为这些足迹不简单地(simply)是猴子或熊的足迹,应该与雪人有关。entirely 全部地,大体地;naturally 自然地;clearly 明显地;simply 简单地,仅仅。其他三个选项所表达的意思显然与亲自拍摄了照片的 Shipton 的态度不一致,故选 D。
48. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 C find(看到实际的东西而)发现,认为;declare(比较有根据的)断言,宣告;doubt(没有根据或把握而)怀疑;feel(有一定把握地)认为。根据上下文可知 Shipton 是有一定把握的,故选 C。
49. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 A Shipton 在拍摄照片后,对于雪人的传说给予一定程度上的确认。他认为雪人可能真的存在(exist)。escape 逃跑;disappear 消失;return 返回。B.C.D 三项均不合题意。
50. 【考点】 逻辑推理题
- 【解析】 B 根据上下文可以推出,人们只是又发现了一些足迹而已,同时注意 footprints, marks 和 tracks 在文章中表示的是同一内容,即足迹(脚印)
51. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 C 大部分的人都认为这些脚印仅仅是一般(ordinary)动物(即上文中的 monkey or bear)留下的足迹,与上句“But the only... were more footprints.”的转折语气一致,表示对雪人的存在持否定的态度。其他三项不合题意,故选 C。
52. 【考点】 逻辑推理题
- 【解析】 B 当雪融化时足迹就会变大(large),然后又冻结。脚印大的特征较其他特征更容易误导人们足迹是雪人留下的,因为雪人的脚印比猴子或熊的脚印“大”些。
53. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 D 根据上下文可知,1964 年一位苏联科学家所持的观点与否认雪人的说法相反。只有 however(然而)起到形成鲜明对比的作用,故选 D。in the end 强调事件的发生顺序,表示“最后”;therefore 表示因果关系;after all 用来引导或提示所述内容的原因或理由。
54. 【考点】 词义辨析题
- 【解析】 B 这位苏联科学家认为雪人是真实存在的,雪人和史前人类尚存一定的联系。imagined 想象的;

special 特别的; familiar 熟悉,均不符合题意。

55.【考点】 词义辨析题

【解析】C 由 evidence 可以追溯到第二段结尾的“...none has ever been produced as evidence”,由此可以判断是“再次否定”, 又一次(again)没有找到证据。instead 相反, 表示对立概念; besides 再则, 表示附加意义; so 表示顺承的语气, 这三项均与语境不符。

56.【考点】 词义辨析题

【解析】 B 这位苏联科学家也拿不出证据说这件事情是实实在在地(actually)存在的。actually = in fact, 用来强调陈述的真实性,为正确答案。rightly 正确地, 恰当地; normally 正常地,通常地; particularly 独特地,显著地, 三项均不符合题意。

57.【考点】 词语搭配题

【解析】C 这一段对全文的一个总结,说明雪人的传说延续至今, 人们对此所持的态度。本句意为: 近来仅仅只有少数一些人还认真(seriously)对待雪人的传说。take sth. seriously 意为“认真严肃地对待某事”, 是固定搭配。

58.【考点】 词义辨析题

Part VI Writing (20 points)

范文: The Popularity of Microblog

With the improvement of microblog services and the on influence of some star microbloggers , most of whom are celebrities, microblog is becoming an important and convenient way for people to express their opinions and communicate with others. Now more and more people start to use microblog services provided by different websites.

However, microblog might give rise to some problems as well. Some microbloggers may become so dependent on microblogs that they would express their thoughts and feelings by writing them down in the microblogs rather than by communicating with family members or friends. Day by day, microblogs tend to draw people away from their real life. What’s worse , lack of face-to-face communication with others might isolate microbloggers from the society, which would do harm to their mental health.

All in all, microblog is a good platform for people to share their personal experiences and to communicate with others. But microbloggers should also have a rational attitude toward it and avoid spending too much time on it. After all, sitting in front of the cold screen for a long time does no good to their health.

Part VI Writing（1X20）

范文： Movement of Population

Nowadays, with the development of modern society.there has been a steady rise in the number of movement of population. This phenomenon has aroused considerable concern from the whole society.

Just as a coin has its two sides,the movement of population is no exception. It has brought about many benefits. First and foremost, there is no denying the limited land can no longer produce enough crops for an ever-increasing rural population. In addition, it is obvious that there are far more opportunities in big cities—rural laborers dream of earning money through hard work However, it also has some problems. For one thing, it will increase the pressure of traffic, for another, it also does great harm to the environment.

On the basis of the above analysis I mentioned above, we can confidently predict the future tendency. There is no denying that if city people and rural laborers have devoted themselves to constructing a healthy city we will have a promising future.

93. 【翻译】A: Yes, but it's very interesting.

96. 【翻译】A: 我喜欢这件连衣裙。它是最新款；可问题是价格有点贵。
【解析】根据对话一开始说话者A(即顾客)所言可知，对话场景为服装店购物。顾客认为这件连衣裙不错，是最新款，但问题是有点贵，遂欲对其讨价还价。本句虽为转折并列句，但句子结构简单，易于理解。翻译中的难点不多，涉及对“latest(最新款式的)”一词和“sort of(有一点，副词短语，后常跟形容词或者副词)”短语的正确理解，切不可将latest译为“最晚的”，将sort of译为“一种……”。

97. 【翻译】B: 价格很合理，女士。
【解析】说话者B(即店员)认为价格已经很合理了。本句为简单句。reasonable意为“合理的”。
98. 【翻译】A: 但是我还是想知道你能否给我打些折扣。
【解析】本句为复合句，其中动词wonder用进行时态，且其后的宾语从句中情态动词could和possibly连用，这都表达了顾客委婉客气的请求。give sb. a discount为固定搭配，意为“给某人打折扣”。
99. 【翻译】B: 它已经低价出售了，女士。但是既然你穿上很合身，打9折好吗？
【解析】说话者B听到了顾客的请求之后决定给她打折。on sale意为“降价，促销”；fit意为“合身，合适”；10% off为“打折，降价”的一种具体表达方式，即“打九折或降价10%”。

Part V. Translation

101. 【翻译】They haven't seen each other for ten years.

【精析】此句考查的是重点是时态, 考生应根据原文状语“已经”和表示一段时间的“十年”判断出此句应使用现在完成时。

102. 【翻译】In my opinion ,discussion is a good solution to the problem.

【精析】此句的考查点为: ①“在我看来”的英语惯用表达法; ②“解决问题”在英文中不一定非用“动词+名词”即“solve the problem”来表达, “方法”也不一定非译成“method/means”等, “名词+介词+名词”的固定搭配“solution to the problem”是“解决问题的方法”的最佳译法; ③考生还应掌握核心词“讨论”的英语表达, 并表达判断适用的词性, 选择其名词形式“discussion”翻译此句。

103. 【翻译】You should take advantage of every opportunity to study English out of class.

【精析】此句主要考查考生对固定词组“out of class (课外)”“take advantage of sth. (利用.....)”及关键词“opportunity (机会)”的掌握。此外, 考生容易受汉语表达的影响, 将“一切机会”译成不太地道的英文表达“all the opportunities”, 正确译为“every opportunity”。

104. 【翻译】She has a strong desire for knowledge, but she doesn't know how to obtain it.

【精析】此句为 but 连接的并列句, 考查点首先是“如何求知”的译法, 这里要套用英语惯常表达法“how to do sth. (如何做某事)”。其次, “对.....有强烈的渴望”在英文中也有固定搭配“have a strong desire for sth.”。最后, 原文表达比较正式, 考生要注意选词, 例如, “求知”也可以译成“get it”, 但显然, “obtain it”更正式。

105. 【翻译】Only when people fall ill can they come to know the value of health.

【精析】此句考查的重点有: ①“只有.....才.....”对应的英语常用表达为“only when...”, 表示强调, only when 处于句首且主句应倒装; ②“才知道”含有“经过一个过程, 逐渐了解”的意思, 在英文中用“come to know”表示; ③“生病”和“.....的价值”在英文中也分别有固定表达: “fall ill”“the value of sth.”。

106. 【翻译】患难见真情

【精析】此句是一个英语俗语, 考生不应拘泥于原文字面结构和意思, 而应正确把握其内涵, 并以对应的汉语习语翻译此句。

107. 【翻译】这个主意听起来不错, 但实际上行得通吗?

【精析】此句是一个转折并列句, 句型上难度不大, 难点在于对词组“sounds good (听起来很好)”“(in practice (实际上/中))”和关键词“work”意思的正确把握, 尤其是单词“work”有很多含义, 考生应依据上句给出的语境, 判断出“work”在本句中的意思为“起作用, 有效, 行得通”。整句话基本按顺译法翻译, 只需略做调整, 将后一句的状语置于谓语之前。

108. 【翻译】据估计, 世界上大约有 80% 的人口支付不起像样的饮食、住房和医疗保健费用。

【精析】此句考查的重点在于对 it 作形式主语的复合句的处理。主干部分“It”是形式主语, 真正的主语是主语从句“that about 80% of the world's population cannot afford to have proper food, housing or medical care”, 同时本句又是被动句。英译汉时, 被动表达通常要按照汉语习惯转换成主动表达, 形式主语通常转换成无人称句, 故主干“It is estimated”转译成“据估计”。从句部分难点是词组“cannot afford to do sth. (买不起...../支付不起.....的费用)”的理解和翻译, 此部分基本按顺译法译出即可, 只做词性的略微调整即可。比如“world”在原文中作定语, 在译文中可转换成状语(世界上 80% 的人口), 以使译文更通顺。

109. 【翻译】美国人常说, 人的一生只有两件事是可以肯定的: 死亡与纳税。

【精析】此句是多重复句, 考生应首先分析其结构层次和逻辑关系: “Americans often say”是主干, 结构上属于第一层次; “that there are only two things...death and taxes”是宾语从句, 属于第二层次; “a person can be sure of in life”是定语从句, 修饰限定名词“things”, 属于第三层次。此外, 考生还需要掌握固定词组“be sure of sth. (确定, 确信)”的意思, 这样才能正确理解原文。在表达时, 考生要注意对英语的 there be 句型做适当的转换, 可以把其处理成无主句“在一生中只有两件事.....”, 也可以把定语从句的主语“a person”转换成“there be”句型的主语, 译成“人一生中只有两件事.....”。另一个可以接受的译文是: 美国人常说, 人一生可以肯定的只有两件事情, 死亡和纳税。

110. 【翻译】我们知道, 由于猫的眼睛比人的眼睛能吸收更多的光线, 所以它能在夜里看得很清楚。

【精析】此句是多重复合句，其结构层次和逻辑关系如下：“We know”是主干，结构上属于第一层次；“That a cat...can see clearly at night”是宾语从句，属于第二层次；“whose eyes can take in...our eyes”是定语从句，修饰限定名词“a cat”，属于第三层次，同时，此句又包含了一个比较级。考生应注意，原文的定语从句在语义上属于原因阐释，揭示了猫在晚上能看得清楚的原因。因此，考生翻译时不能拘泥于原文表面语法结构，而应按照语义关系转换成汉语的因果关系句，同时按照汉语“原因-结果”的顺序调整句子语序。

Part VI Writing (1X20)

范文：

Getting to know the society

It is necessary for college students to know the society. In school, we only obtain knowledge from books, which, sometimes, is different from real life experience. Only through practice can we modify our ways in study in order to serve society better after graduation. What’s more, we can gain abilities in organization and management in practice.

There are many ways for us to know the society. For example, we can learn a lot through watching TV , listening to the radio, reading newspapers and so on. Also we can know the society through serving it, such as being a social volunteer to offer help to the disabled.

Besides the ways mentioned above, I take an active part in some social activities. For example, I have been a private teacher in my spare time and taken a part-time job in the holiday. In this way, I think I can better fit society in the future.

范文：The Best Means of Transportation

Nowadays, more people tend to buy private cars as their means of transportation. Convenient as they are, private cars are causing more and more problems, such as environmental pollution, traffic jams and traffic accidents, These problems are increasingly threatening our environment, our health, and even ,our lives.

In fact, people have many choices as their means of transportation. Besides private cars, people can go out by bike, by motorcycle, by bus, by train, etc. Each of them may have its advantages and disadvantages.

In my opinion, for the sake of our health and protecting our environment and saving energy, it is certainly better to go out by bike for most people who make short trips within several miles. It is not only a healthy way of taking physical exercise but also an active act of protecting the environment and saving energy, for it consumes much less fuel, nor does it produce any pollution.

Why I Attended College?

Why did I college? Is the four-year academic life worthwhile ?I have put these question to myself many times in the past two years,and now I have reached the conclusion that college education is something that Itruly want and it is worthwhile.

I chose to attend college because I enjoy learning.I felt that I wanted to continue to study.I simply couldn't end my education upon graduation from the high school and enter the working world so soon.I chose to attend college also because I feel college is more than a place which offers knowledge. It also exposes one to a rich variety of ideas and help. Finally,I feel that in today's world, a college education has become almost essential if one wishes to compete in the job market..Attending college is a practical and necessary step to ensure a secure future for myself.

For these reasons, I never consider myself unhappy, miserable or unfairly burdened, and I never think attending college is a waste of time and money. It is worth our effort.

Part VI Writing (20 points)

范文:

Some people claim that money is the only rue that measures a person. They would regard you as a successful man if you have a large sum of money. And they would even consider you a fool if you are penniless, or if you are against them.

Others try to prove that money is the source of all crimes. To illustrate, they say that a certain person needs money and he goes to steal or rob. And they would often tell the story that a millionaire pays off some politicians so that he can do whatever he likes.

My attitude towards money is that we earn money to live, but not live to earn money. No matter how much money we have, we should always be the master of it, not the slave of it.

A Letter to the President

Dear President,

Thank you for reading my letter. My name is Kang Yan, and I' m a student at the college. I' d like to say something about the usage of mobile phone among college students.

Nowadays, more and more college students use mobile phone on college campus not for its convenience but for its fashion and popularity. On the other hand , using mobile phone affects the normal teaching order to some extent. In the lecture, sometimes we hear the phone ring here and there, and some of students send short messages, now and then. As a result we couldn't concentrate on our work.

People have different opinions about it. I think it's good to use the mobile phone, but the students shouldn't use it in the lecture. Finally, I hope you can pay attention to the phenomenon.

Sincerely yours
